

The New Jersey "Do Not Call" list -the Telephone Consumer Protection Act-has finally brought some peace and peace of mind to my home. No longer do I have to field annoying calls. If I want to purchase a service or a product I will initiate the call myself.